November 10, 2018 (Sat) 10:00 – 17:30

Venue: Tachikawa Memorial Hall, Rikkyo University

韓国、中国、香港、シンガポール、オーストラリアから世界的に活躍中の研究者を迎えて、現代の都市の再生事業や移民問題の動向などについて議論します（同時通訳あり）

The college of Sociology, Rikkyo University, holds an international workshop on 10th November 2018. This is part of the celebrations for the 60th anniversary for the foundation of the College in 1958, which has grown to one of the largest schools of sociology in Japan with eminent specialists. The workshop is jointly organized by the Rikkyo Institute for Global Urban Studies which has regularly organized collaborative international conferences since its establishment of 2007. There have been various activities and programs undertaken by local governments and other corporate actors that have led to the rejuvenation of urban areas, and thus at the workshop we would cover some different types of re-development and movements that arise to re-vitalize world cities.
